

Certificate in Development Studies Department of Geography

(1) All students must take the core Geography class in development:

GEOG 4632/5632 - Development Geography

(2) All students must take ONE additional Geography seminar from among the following:

GEOG 5782 - Sustainable Development: Critique

GEOG 6402 - Comparative Environments

GEOG 4842/5842 - Global Health

GEOG 4852/5852 - Medical Geography

GEOG 4732/5732 - Population Geography

GEOG 4292/5292 - Migration, Immigrant Adaptation and Development

GEOG 5100 - taught by any of the following Geography development studies affiliates:

Dunn, Root, Riosmena, Goldman, Bryan, Yeh

(3) & (4)

In addition, students should complete TWO additional seminars from the following list, at least one of which should be outside of Geography:

ANTH 7000 – Current Research Topics in Cultural Anthropology

Section 2 Human Ecology

Section 3 Culture and Fertility

Section 5 National and Cultural Citizenship

Section 9 Ethnographies of Globalization

Section 10 Bodies/Medicine/Illness

Section 12 Modernity

Section 13 Anthropology of neoliberalism

ANTH 5780 - Core Course in Cultural Anthropology

ANTH 5785 - Advanced Seminar in Cultural Anthropology

ANTH 5600 – Human ecology: cultural aspects

ANTH 5020 - Explorations in Anthropology: Conservation and indigenous peoples

ANTH 4500/5500 - Cross-Cultural Aspects of Socioeconomic Development

ATLS 5519 – Global Development

CVEN 5834 – Sustainable Community Development

ECON 8774 - Economic development: Seminar in Transition Economies*

GEOG 6402 - Comparative Environmental Studies

GEOG 5100 - (with a different instructor)

HIST 6019 – Readings – World History

HIST 5628- Modern China

HIST 5129 – Modern Asian History

PSCI 7132: Comparative Political Economy

PSCI 7073: Global Political Economy

PSCI 7036/ENVS 5730 Introduction to the Policy Sciences: The Decision Process

PSCI 7032: Seminar in Latin American Politics
PSCI 7026/ENVS 5720 – The problem orientation
PSCI 7022: Seminar in Political and Economic Development
PSCI 7016/ENVS 5710 – Introduction to policy sciences
SOCY 6016 – Topics in sex and gender: Gender in Globalization
SOCY 6007 – Foundations of Environmental Sociology
SOCY 6017 – Inequality, Democracy and Environment
SOCY 7017 – Population & Environment
SOCY 6012 – Population issues, problems, policies
WMST 5010-3 Feminist Methodology
WMST 5090-3 Feminist Theories
WMST 5290 Topics in women and gender studies
 Sections: Gender –Global Perspective
 Global Gender Issues
 Gender and Global human rights

* Prerequisites apply; course available only with instructor permission updated 10/27/11